Tree applications and decisions

Reference: 20/01656/CA

Address: 24 Angel Meadows, Odiham RG29 1AR

Description: Liquidambar (T1) - located behind the house on the boundary with No.22. Reduce in height by 1-1.5 m and bring into a natural crown shape. Cherry (T2) - located on the boundary line of the property. Crown reduce by removing 2 m in height back to original pruning points. Cuts not bigger than 100 mm to prevent stress on the tree. Sorbus - (T3) - located at the front of the property. Reduce any over extended limbs that protrude from the natural canopy form. Crown lift to 2 m above ground level

OPC Comments: No objection.

Reference: 20/01881/CA

Address: Hilden, King Street, Odiham RG29 1NJ

Reference: 20/01937/CA

Address: Kings Cottage, Buryfields, Odiham RG29 1NE

Description: Bay tree (T1) - overgrown and out of control extending to 13 metres in height. Reduce height and width by one half as advised professional tree surgeon. This will allow more light to access the rest of the garden, and allow the tree to flourish in the future

OPC Comments: No objection.

Tree decisions were noted.

P66/20 Enforcements opened and closed
None.

P67/20 Enforcement appeals
None.

P68/20 To consider how OPC should respond to the new proposals on planning published by the Government
This was discussed and it was agreed that Cllr Stewart would draft a response to be circulated for agreement.

P69/20 To consider a response to Hart DC's consultation on how the Council's Local Validation List can be improved
The Chair explained the validation process and discussion followed. It was agreed that Cllr Verdon would submit the comments agreed at this meeting to Hart DC.

P70/20 Planning correspondence
i) A letter had been received from a resident regarding the flagpoles.

- ii) Following the meeting regarding Close Meadow when Cllrs Verdon and McFarlane had explained its status as 'Local Green Space', correspondence had been received from the trustee with proposals for the site. It was agreed that Cllr Verdon would write a response.
- iii) Cllr Verdon had written to Cllr Crookes asking about the provision of affordable housing on the Swan site. As Cllr Crookes was present at this meeting, he was invited to provide an update. He explained that there were a number of options for Hart DC and that he would keep OPC informed. It was agreed that Cllr Verdon would write to Daryl Phillips requesting that Hart consider all options when developing this site.
- iv) In response to a query about ash dieback (reference 20/01661/CA – 7 Angel Meadows), the Tree Officer had inspected the trees and found that two were severely infected. It was noted that the trees are actually in the rear garden of 5 Angel Meadows.
- v) HCC had confirmed that they are dealing with the cutting down of trees on West Street which back onto houses in Burgess Close.
- vi) There had been no response to the Chair's emails to the Enforcement Officer on the refusal of planning permission at the alpaca farm in Broad Oak. Cllr Crookes would chase this.
